Guide to application for Exemption and Deferred Payment of Admission Fee and Tuition Fees for the First Semester in 2025 (International Student)

1. Exemption and Deferred payment of Admission Fee

Toyohashi University of Technology is offering a plan for the exemption (partial) and deferred payment of Admission Fee for eligible students based on a review and approval of their application.

Students who apply for the exemption or deferred payment of Admission fee don't have to make a payment until the announcement of the reviewed results. In case the payment is made before the announcement, the application of Exemption and Deferred Payment of Admission Fee are assumed to be declined.

The following students are eligible to apply:

【Eligible Students for Exemption】

- (1) Students entering the graduate schools in 2025 April, who have difficulty in paying Admission fee for financial reasons and are recognized as academically outstanding. Be aware that the students entering the undergraduate schools are not eligible for financial reasons.
- (2) Students for whom the person responsible for payment of school expenses has died or students or the person responsible for payment have suffered as a result of a natural disaster during the period from April of 2024 to March of 2025, and find it difficult to pay the Admission fee.

【Eligible Students for Deferred Payment】

- (1) Students entering the graduate schools in 2025 April, who have difficulty in paying Admission fee before the due date and are recognized as academically outstanding.
- (2) Students for whom the person responsible for payment of school expenses has died or students or the person responsible for payment have suffered as a result of a natural disaster during the period from April of 2024 to March of 2025, and find it difficult to pay the Admission fee by the due date.

【Documents required to apply for exemption and deferred payment of admission fee】

Toyohashi University of Technology, 1-1 Hibirigaoka, Tempaku-cho, Toyohashi 441-8580, JAPAN

【Announcement of the results of screening】

The results of the review will be notified in June 2025.

If the application for Exemption and Deferred Payment is not accepted, or partial exemption are accepted, payment of admission fee should be completed by the due date. If the deferred payment is approved, the deadline for payment of the admission fee is August 29, 2025.

Unless the payment is completed by the due date above, the student will be removed from the register.

Even if you are an international student, you may not necessarily be exempted or granted permission for deferred payment, so please be prepared to pay your admission fees.

2. Exemption and Deferred payment of Tuition Fees (for the First semester in 2025)

Toyohashi University of Technology is offering a plan for the exemption and deferred payment of tuition fees (whole or partial) for eligible students based on a review and approval of their application.

【Eligible Students for Exemption and Deferred Payment】

Students of post graduate schools (except research students, non-degree students, repeat students or those exceeding the course terms; however, students who took temporary leave from University for studying abroad or special reasons including sick leave do qualify) and who meet one of the following conditions.

- (1) Students who have difficulty in paying tuition fees for the due date and are recognized as academically outstanding.
- (2) Students for whom the person responsible for payment of school expenses has died or students or the person responsible for payment have suffered as a result of a natural disaster within a 6-month period of the due date for payment of tuition for each semester (period from October 2024 to March 2025, in the case of newly entering students, the period is increased to one year from the due date).
